The LSU E. J. Ourso College of Business is hosting the Young Entrepreneurs Academy of Baton Rouge (YEA BR, www.yeabr.org) again this academic year. YEA BR is a national after-school program that transforms high school students into confident entrepreneurs. A program of the Baton Rouge Area Chamber, select 8-12th grade students from the nine parish Baton Rouge Area work with LSU E. J. Ourso College of Business instructors and local entrepreneurs to start and run their own businesses.

Applications are being accepted now through August 20.

Over the academic year, instructors from the LSU E. J. Ourso College of Business work with students to:
- create a business plan
- pitch to a Shark Tank-like panel for seed money
- file their startups with the Secretary of State's office
- launch their own companies.

Furthermore, graduates qualify for LSU credit.

Spread the word to all creative, driven students you know! Learn more by watching the information session or visiting yeabr.org.

Watch info session

Additional information is available online:
- Website with application: www.yeabr.org
- Student pitch videos: www.yeabr.org/successes
- One page printable summary for students: http://bit.ly/yeabrforstudents

Student referrals can be made at: www.yeabr.org/refer. The application deadline is August 20.

Help YEA BR foster an entrepreneurial mindset in young members of our community, contributing to a culture of innovation throughout the Baton Rouge Area. Please spread the word!